The restaurant from Philadelphia offers 27 different dishes and drinks on the menu at an average price of $14.1. Discovering the culinary treasures of a new Chinese restaurant has sparked a delightful debate among patrons. While some diners express dissatisfaction over soggy tofu, communication issues, or overly spicy dishes, others proclaim it as the best Chinese food in the Northeast, even surpassing renowned establishments. Many rave about the consistently fresh seafood and comforting take-out experience, with highlights including perfectly cooked scallops and flavorful crab legs. Despite the mixed reviews, this eatery stands out for its authentic flavors and unique packaging, promising an enjoyable meal that transports diners back to their favorite culinary memories. A definite must-try!.
